VOLUME XIII

Dedication

It is with pride, admiration and gratitude that we, the Class of 1969, dedicate our Yearbook to Mr. William A. Vellante.

As our high school principal, Mr. Vellante has given each of us his respect, understanding and guidance. He has always taken an interest in the things that are important to us, and has offered his advice whenever it was needed. We hope that Mr. Vellante's impression of the Class of 1969 is only half as good as the one we have of him.

In closing, we would just like to say, "Thanks for Everything."

Appreciation

In return for her devoted time and effort, we would like to express our appreciation to Miss Susan Maguire. She has unselfishly served as the Director of our Senior Play and as advisor of our Yearbook. Through her advice and leadership, she has contributed a great deal, both to the class as a whole, and to each individual member. It is for these reasons that we would like to extend our sincere thanks to Miss Maguire.

Mohawk Staff

The purpose of every yearbook is to present an accurate and meaningful picture of the high school years. This task was not an easy one for the 1968-1969 Mohawk Staff. We hope that, after many long hours of discussion and work, we have managed to catch at least part of the excitement that is the Class of 1969. It is our belief that our efforts have been fruitful and that this yearbook will provide an accurate picture of the years at M.H.S. should you, in future years, "Try to Remember."

FACULTY

The faculty taught not only by books, but also by example. By offering their friendship and guidance, they have instilled in us a confidence, both in ourselves and in others. But most important of all, they have prepared each one of us to cross the threshold into adulthood.

Fall

Try to remember the days of autumn,
When leaves were gold, and weather fair.
Try to remember the days of autumn,
Times of school, and football cheer.
Try to remember the days of autumn,
Halloween costume, brisky air.
Try to remember, and if you remember,
You care.

The Freshman Class

Since the doors of M.H.S. opened to admit the enthusiastic mob of freshmen, those hallowed halls haven't been the same. We immediately began fund-raising projects.

Our success was by no means an accident. The "go get 'em" quality was displayed by every student. Our ambitious president, John Fettig, our determined vice-president, Neil Gillespie, our thrifty treasurer, Richard Monaghan and our efficient secretary, Margaret Rielly all worked together, striving for the same goal.

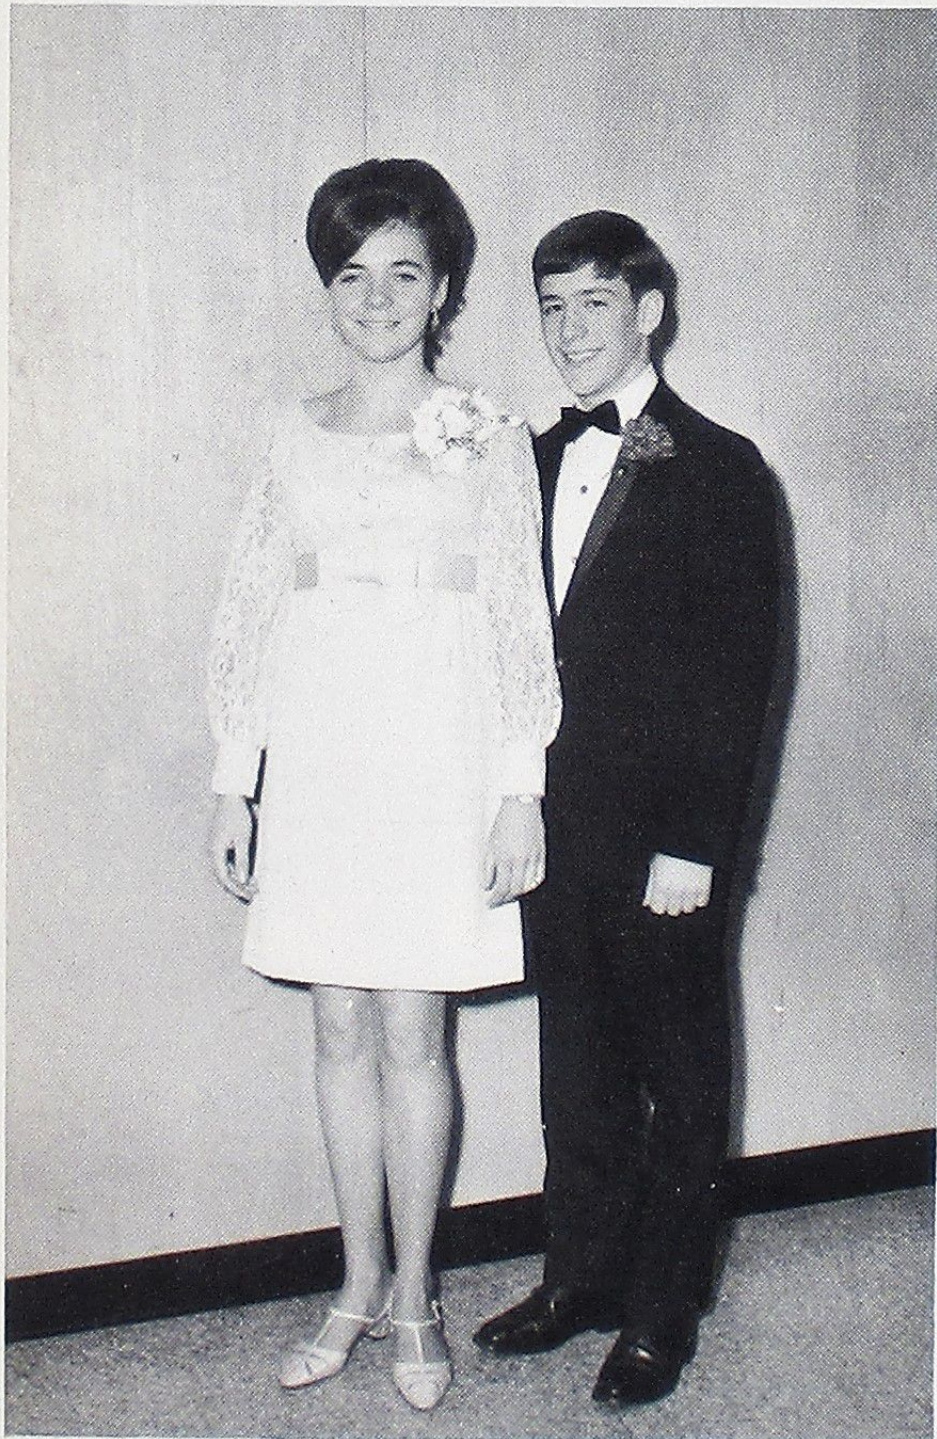

Behind all this success is our inspiring class advisor, Mr. Flanagan.

Let's hope that the future years for the class of '72 are just as successful.

Cheerleaders

The P-ositively E-nthusiastic P-articipation displayed by the fans of M.H.S. during the 1968-69 football season was a credit to the efforts of our cheerleaders. They brought to the surface that lively Millis spirit that has long been associated with Millis High School. This spirit was clearly manifested in the wild cheering which marked the Mohawk's victory over the Medfield Warriors. (It was further demonstrated at the Thanksgiving game when the cheerleaders organized two parallel lines through which the boys ran proudly onto the field.)

The papier-maché figure of a Mohawk riding a Mustang was a prime example of these girls' ingenuity and hard work. Such vivid memories of their dedication will not be forgotten.

Our band has made tremendous gains this year, largely through the efforts of Mr. Vorce and the enthusiasm he has instilled in the student body. The band has expanded, not only in numbers, but in spirit and quality.

The twirlers, for the fourth consecutive year, joined the band in providing entertainment during half-time at our football games. The girls worked hard under the leadership of co-captains Suzanne Ritchie and Wendy King.

Student Council

Student involvement was the main goal of this year's student council. Every venture was geared to benefit the students of Millis High. During the chilly football games, council members were on hand with tonic, donuts and steamy cups of coffee for the freezing fans. The profits from the sale of these concessions provided a solid base for the council's treasury. However, more money was needed.

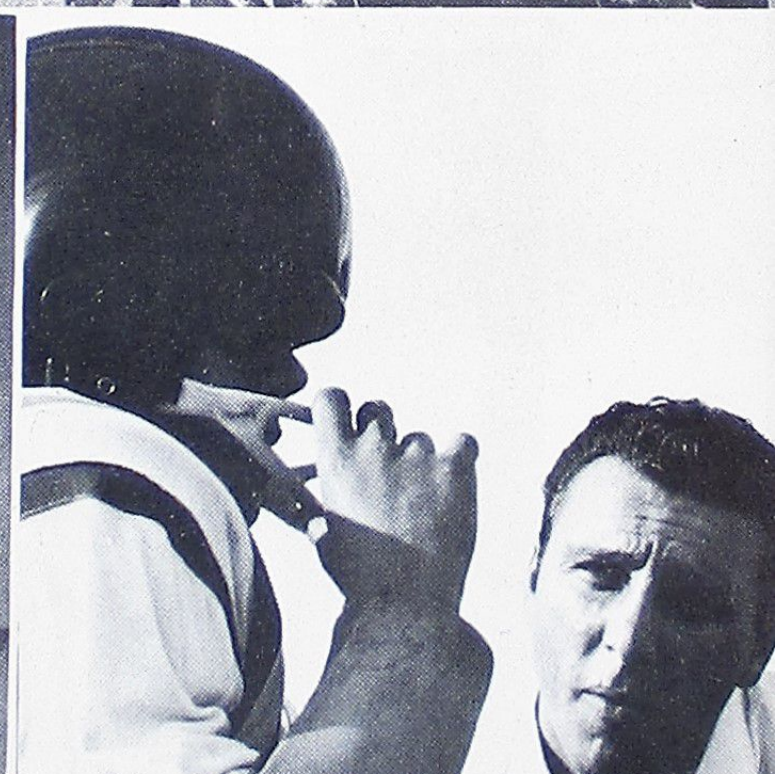

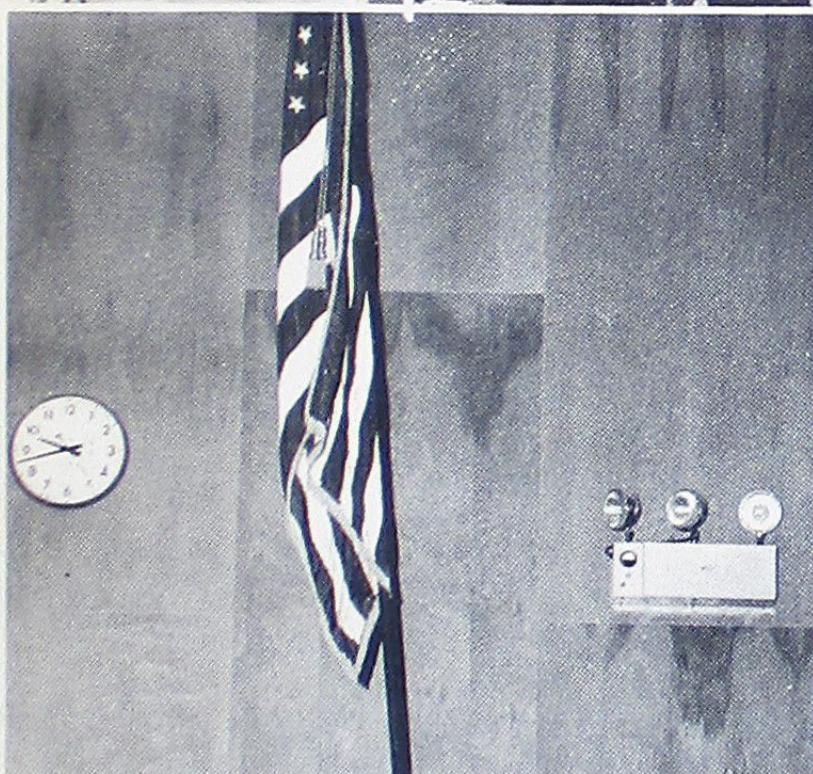

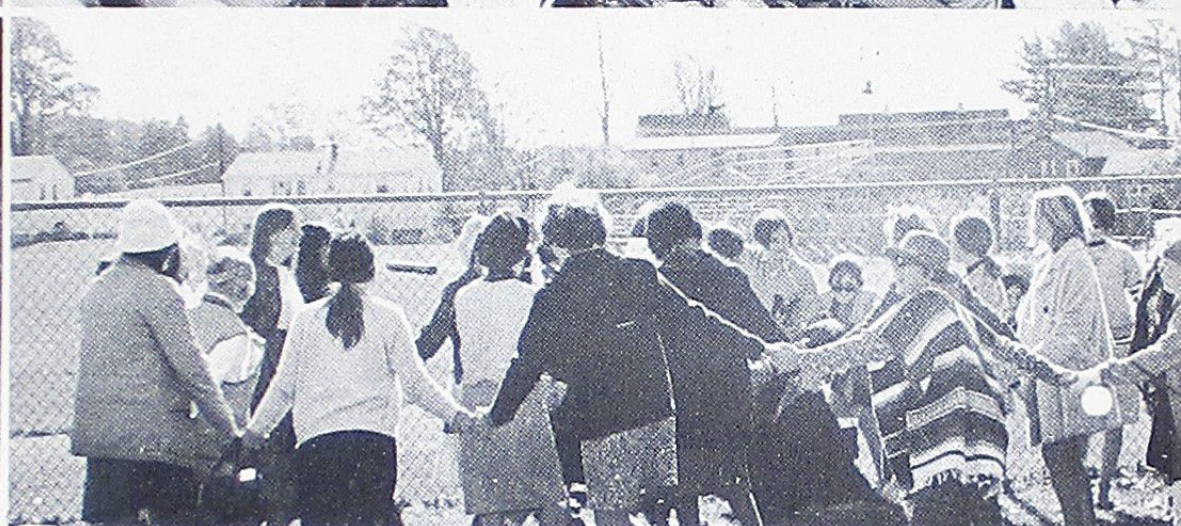

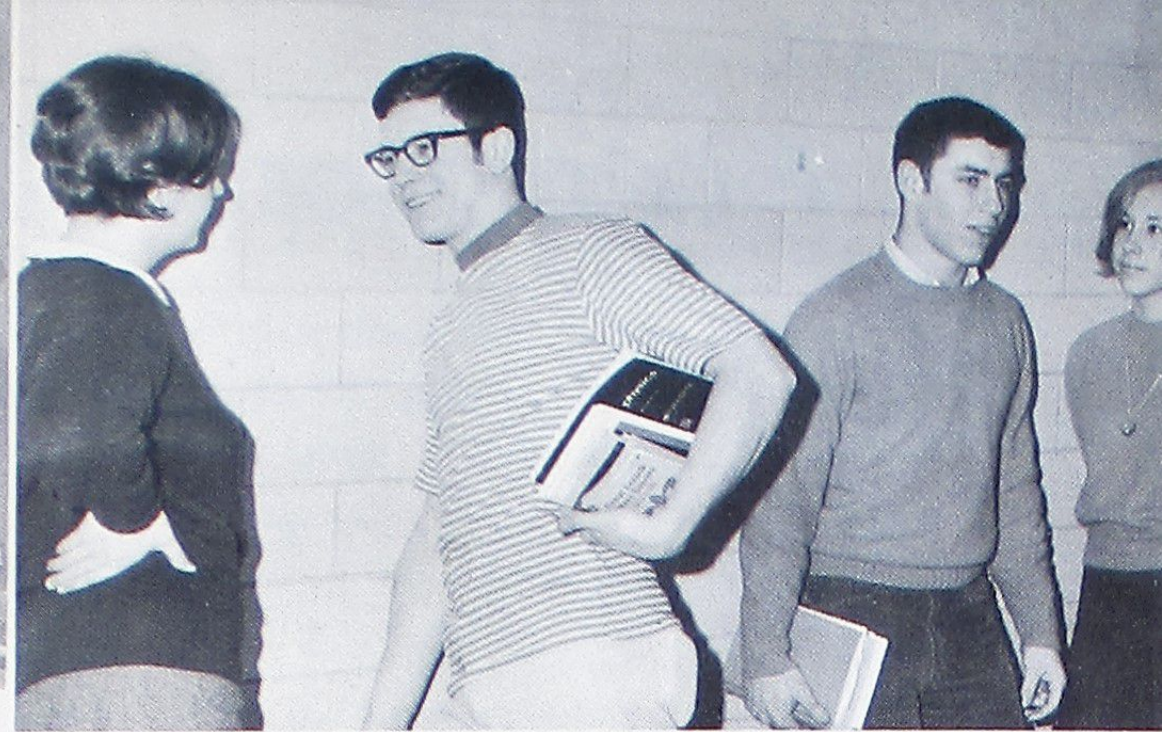

By contacting neighboring student councils, our members received many fund raising ideas. In choosing a "candy sale" as their main project, they hoped to involve as many students as possible. Never before had such a large scale project been carried off. After much work and worry, the candy sale proved successful. It netted several hundred dollars and involved about 200 students.

Part of the money was used for a scholarship; the remainder was left to next year's council to be used for assemblies and other projects which will benefit the student body of Millis High School.

Field Hockey

The team, under the leadership of tri-captains Deneb Karentz, Gayle Krohn, and Arlene Mighton, completed a successful season, of 7-6-1. The team will always remember the sundaes and ice cream cones awarded to everyone at the last game because of their hard work.

The Sophomore Class

While watching the busy upperclassmen, Sophomores often become impatient, yet still have fears of new obstacles. Even with all our anxieties, we think being a sophomore is something special.

Being a sophomore is:

- ... breaking in new teachers
- ... taking part in assemblies
- ... starring in J.V. sports
- ... scoring twenty-six goals in field hockey
- ... sitting out varsity games
- ... trying to dominate the freshmen and equal the juniors
- ... watching with envy as the juniors prepare for their talent show and prom
- ... watching ourselves grow up and become better prepared.

Seniors Present ‘Mame’s America’

Friday, the thirteenth of December, 1968 will be remembered in the golden history of Broadway hits as the opening night of our senior class play, “Mame’s America”. The musical revue opened to a full house both nights of its two night stand proving to be both a commercial and an artistic success.

The high spirited cast roared through each number with enthusiasm enough to win the praise and delight of every person in the audience. The show proved to be an unforgettable hit in all ways and it is doubtful that its record breaking acclaim will ever be surpassed.

Christmas Assembly

A co-operative effort on the part of the music department and the senior class resulted in a superlative Christmas assembly. Under the direction of Mr. Vorcé, our chorus and band performed with excellence and enthusiasm. Individual seniors participating in the program were: Arlene Mighton, Richard Graham, Ralph Geyer, and Roxy Mico.

By looking at the record of this year's basketball team, one might think that we had a losing season. However, one must look beyond the record to obtain a clear picture. Even when our wins were few and far between, our team remained dedicated to the game. A succession of injuries made the struggle even harder. But they still didn't give up.

Under the devoted leadership of Coach Paul Duca, they fought on to win six games. Most important of all, however, is the fact that they never lost their drive or their sportsmanship. This in itself shows what a great basketball team we had this year.

Cheerleaders

Needless to say, this year's cheerleading squad went above and beyond the call of duty. All through the season, whether the team was winning or losing, they were behind them all the way. They even filled the halls with signs, posters, and pictures, encouraging the team to victory. It was through the efforts of these girls that MHS won its famous Millis Spirit.

The girls' basketball team showed considerable improvement this year with a record of 4 wins and 5 losses. Through the coaching of Miss Elaine Peterson and the leadership of co-captains Susan Leontie and Deneb Karentz, the team exhibited the best qualities of good sportsmanship, winning with confidence and losing with spirit.

P.T.A. Sponsors

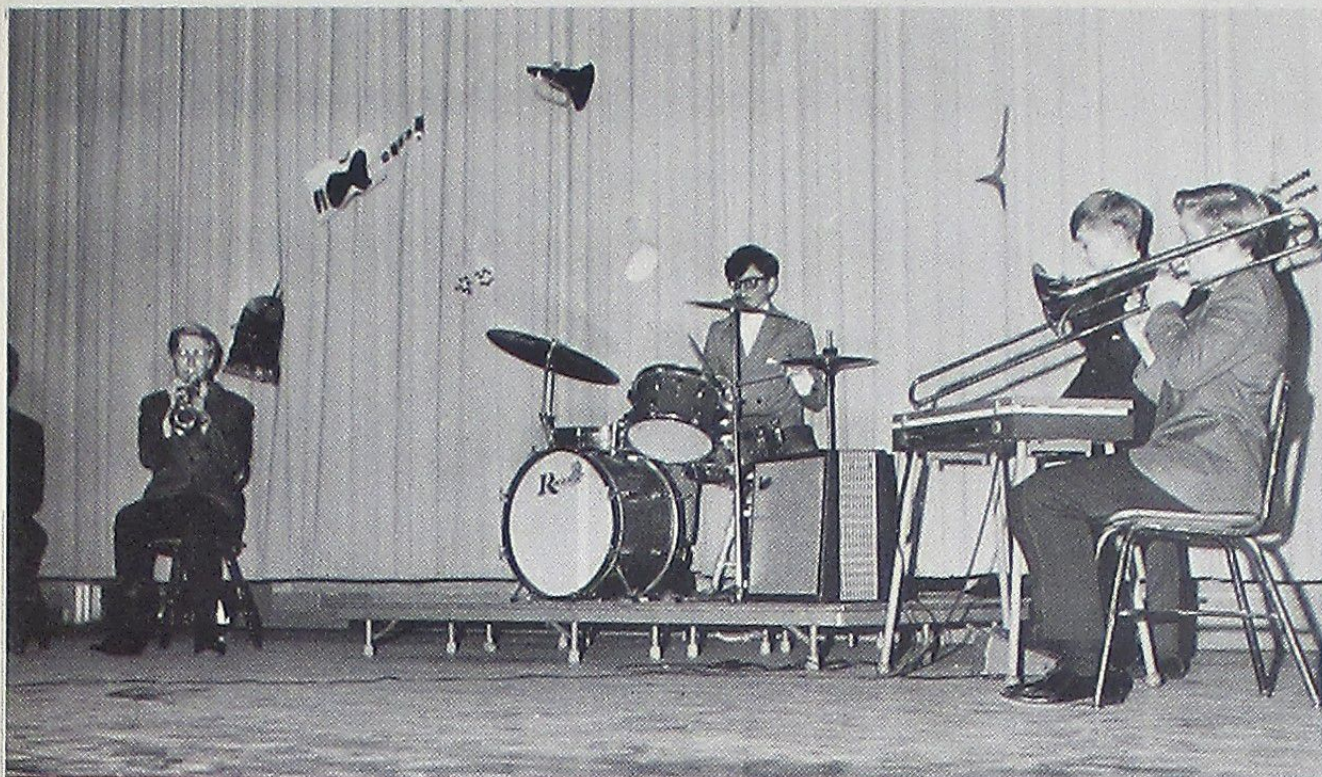

February 15, 1969, the night of the 14th Annual Valentine Ball, sponsored by the P.T.A., will certainly be a night to remember. The cafeteria, with its glittering ceiling of suspended hearts of various shapes and sizes, was transformed into a royal ballroom forming the perfect setting for the crowning of the King and Queen, John Welch and Maryanne Rielly. The evening ended perfectly with the traditional royal waltz started by the King and Queen.

Talent Show

The Spur of the Moment

On March 21, 1969, the Junior Class presented the Second Annual Talent Show. The parents were pleased to discover that the younger generation had produced another Fred Astaire, in the person of Allan Marchon and we are all sure that Steve Allard will make a tremendous forest ranger, with his brilliant theory on forest fires. Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Welch and Miss Susan Maguire, the second Talent Show was as much a success as the first.

Spring

The Junior Class

In September, we got our rings
Which really was the start of things;
For we set out to show the rest
The junior class was really best.

As delegates to the Valentine Ball,
Vickie and Ronny were the best of all;
Our talent show was quite a sight,
And proved to be an unforgettable night.

Joe, Ronny, Janet and Gail
Led us on without fail;
To the Honor Society we added ten;
The junior class was at it again!

We started out to prove "Love is Blue"
And there is nothing that juniors can't do;
With Mrs. Welch to help our cause
Our Prom was the best that ever was.

And so we think it's plain to see
Just how our senior year will be;
'Cause the Class of '70 is the very best
That ever was at M.H.S.

On April 17, 1969, the Millis Chapter of the National Honor Society held its annual assembly for the induction of new members. This year, more new members were inducted than ever before, among them being three seniors, ten juniors, and four provisional members from the sophomore class.

Through the efforts of their advisor, Mrs. Mary Welch, the ceremony proved to be a solemn and meaningful affair. To complete the ceremonies, a banquet was held the same evening in honor of the new members.

Baseball

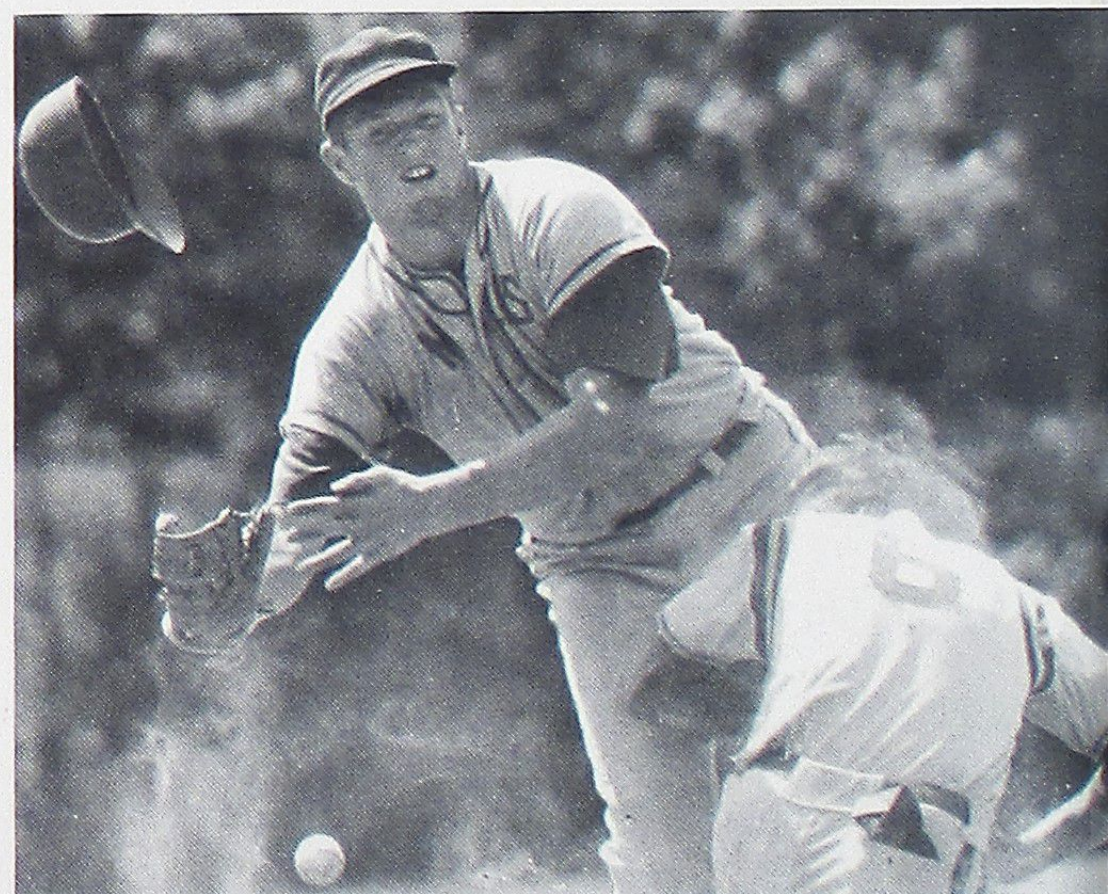

Of all the years in Millis baseball history, this was the first in which Millis has become Division B champions and entered the Eastern Mass. Tournament. However, without our six seniors, the team could not have accomplished what they did.

On first base was G. Browne who also assisted the pitching staff. J. O'Rourke led the team with 14 stolen bases while doing the bulk of the pitching for the team. D. Rosen was the team's leading pinch-hitter and utility outfielder. Dave was always there to help the team. R. Graham was the best defensive catcher in the league. He also led the team in reaching base. On second base was D. Gillespie. Dennis had the best fielding average on the team. The sixth senior is one who will never be forgotten in Millis. J. Welch pitched for 6 wins and amassed one of the greatest records ever compiled in M.H.S. history. He led the league with 7 h.r. and 23 rbi. He also led the team with the most hits and runs.

Due to the great leadership of Coach Richards, the Mohawks ended the season with a 15-5 record. This was truly a year to remember.

1969 was a successful year for the Millis track team. Because of the effort displayed by all participants, the team was able to achieve a 4-3 record for the season. Coach Marak and Assistant-Coach Glass had reason to be proud of their hard-working team headed by co-captains Donald Mosher and Kenneth Woodward. Three school records were broken by track members: Donald Mosher set a new 880 record; Jack McGillan set a new two mile record, and Herbert McCown set a new long jump record.

Golf Team

Coach Duca guided the golf team, now in its second year of league competition, to finish third with a 3-7-2 record. Of the twenty boys out for golf, we lost only one Senior so it appears that Millis will have a championship golf team for some years to come. One of the promising young golfers is sophomore Bob Curly, who, on May 27, shot a 77 at South Shore Country Club to finish third in a field of 83, and qualify for the State Individual Championships.

Tennis

For the first time in M.H.S. history, a varsity team was fielded. This year, as most first years, was a building year. The majority of the team was composed of Sophomores or underclassmen. The main problem was the lack of experience. As evidenced by its 2-8 record, the team was simply overpowered. Although the team is losing it's senior co-captains, Steve Warsof and Chuck Ellis, Coach Karoghlanian has high hopes for next year.

Softball

Victory prevailed this season as the girls' softball team finished the season with 5 wins and 4 losses. The reasons? Maybe it was the terrific coaching of Miss Elaine Peterson . . . Well — how about the leadership of co-captains Debbie Mosher and Jo-Ann Powell? . . . Or could it have been the natural skill of the players? . . . Perhaps it was that continual promise of "ice cream for everyone — if you win."

Junior Prom

"GONE WITH THE WIND"

Through the combined efforts of the Class of 1969 and our advisor, Mr. Conley, the gymnasium was transformed into a beautiful Southern mansion, in line with our theme "Gone with the Wind". The evening was climaxed by a memorable Grand March and Senior Reception.

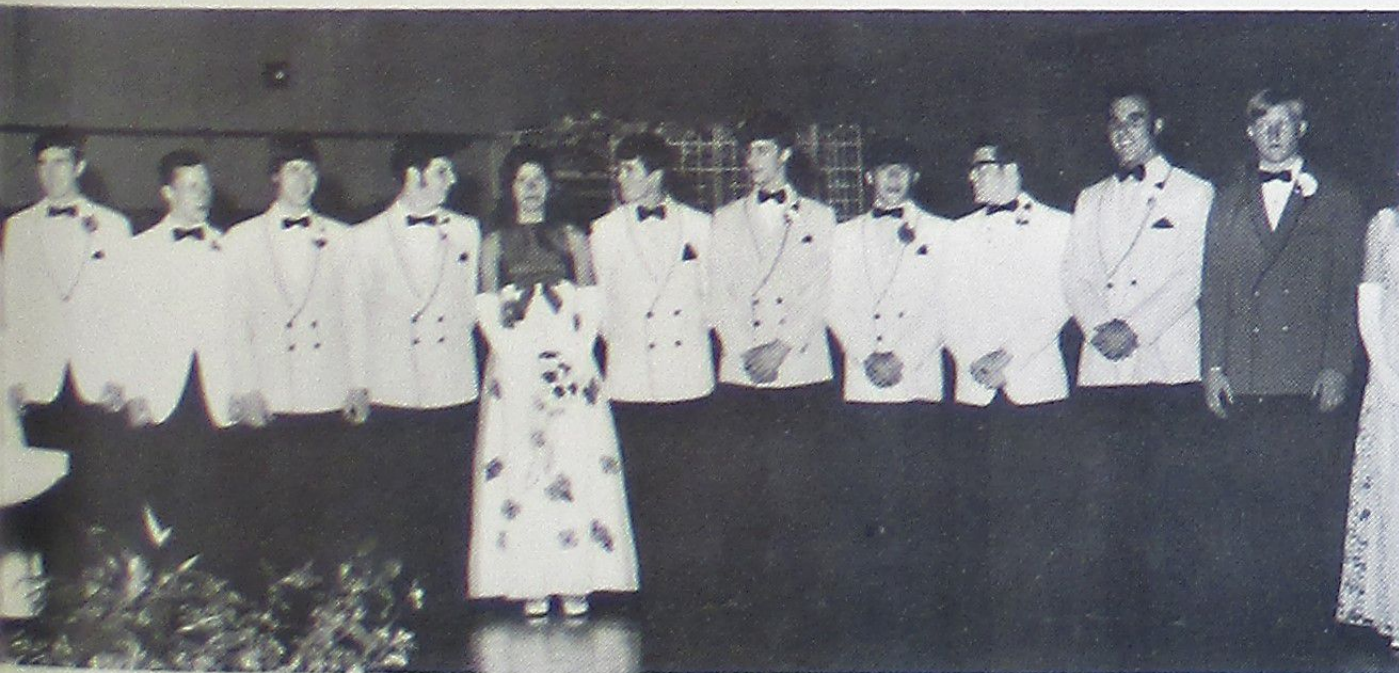

Senior Reception

"LOVE IS BLUE"

The strains of "Love is Blue" welcomed all those who attended the 1969 Millis Junior Prom and Senior Reception held at the beautifully decorated gymnasium on May 16. Happy couples waltzed to the melodious tunes of Eddie Winiker and Family Orchestra. Memories of this evening will certainly linger in the years to come.

Humanities

An important step was taken this year in modifying the ancient educational system at Millis High School. Fostered mainly by Miss Maguire, Mr. Vorce, Mr. Gilfoy, and Mr. Tuohey, the program called for a new student-teacher relationship in which the teacher became a resource person and part of the class. Learning was done through inter-related projects utilizing the facilities of the school, school personnel, and the community. In our program on the 1920's, the projects covered all aspects of the period. Our projects included: the setting up of a facist state, creating a speakeasy, a Klu-Klux Klan rally, a historical tour of Millis, and the making of a silent movie.

We deemed it a privilege to be a part of a project which was obviously a thing of the future.

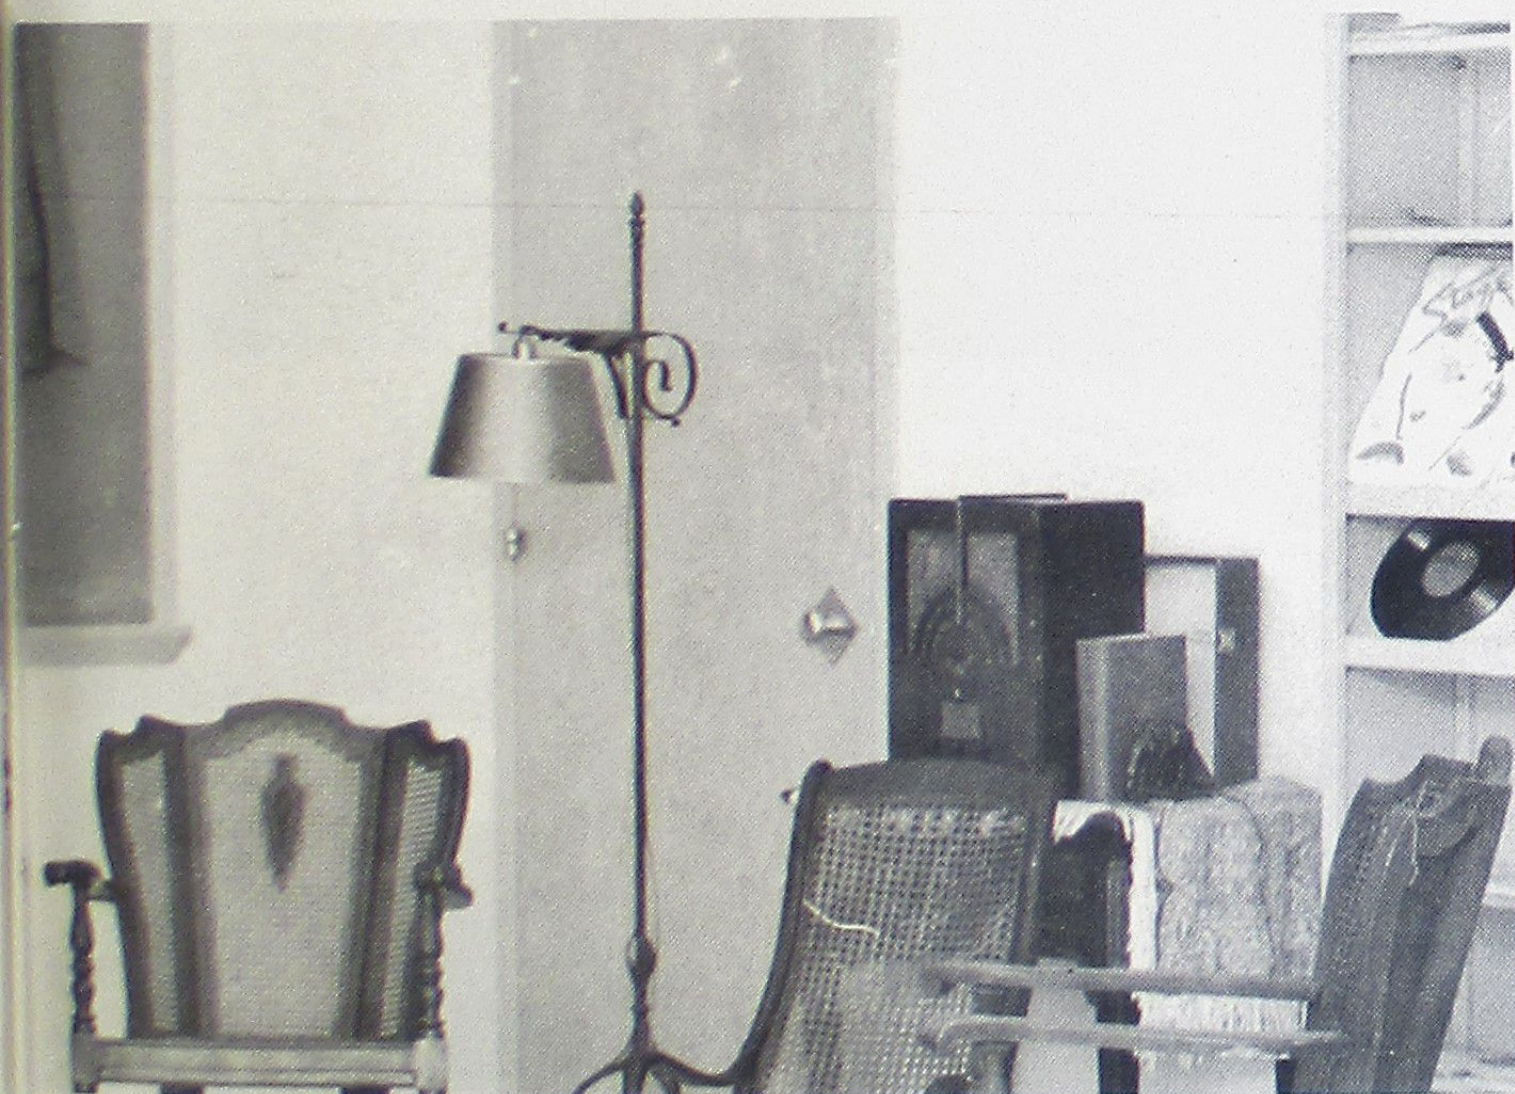

She doesn't play good football, but she sure takes a mean shower.

Hi there!

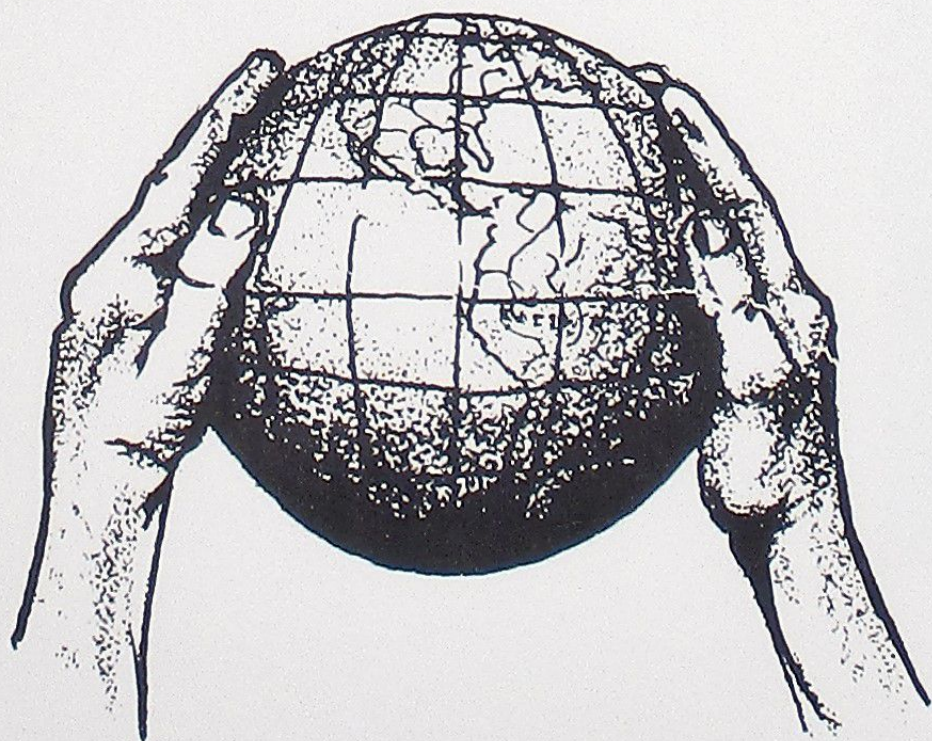

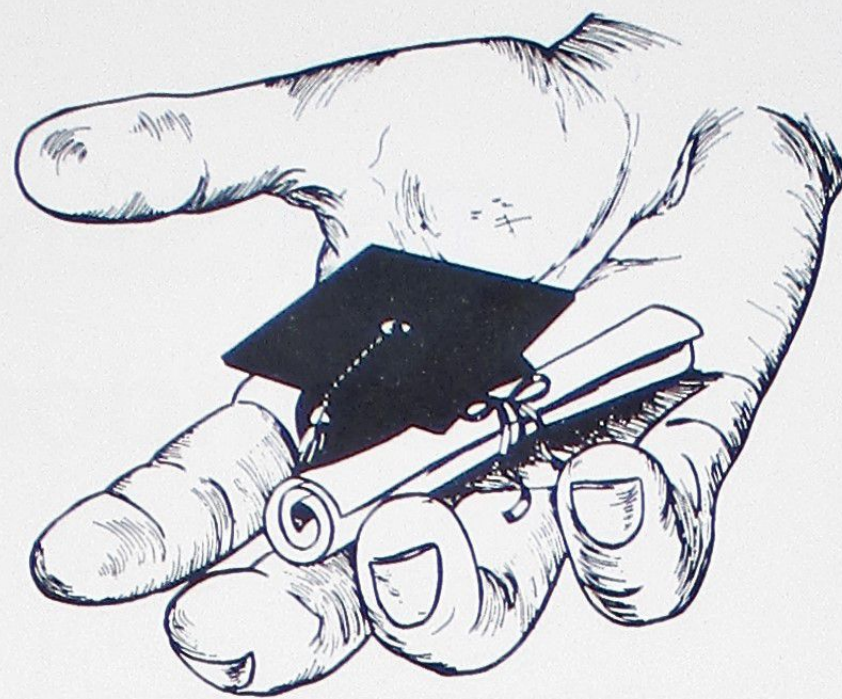

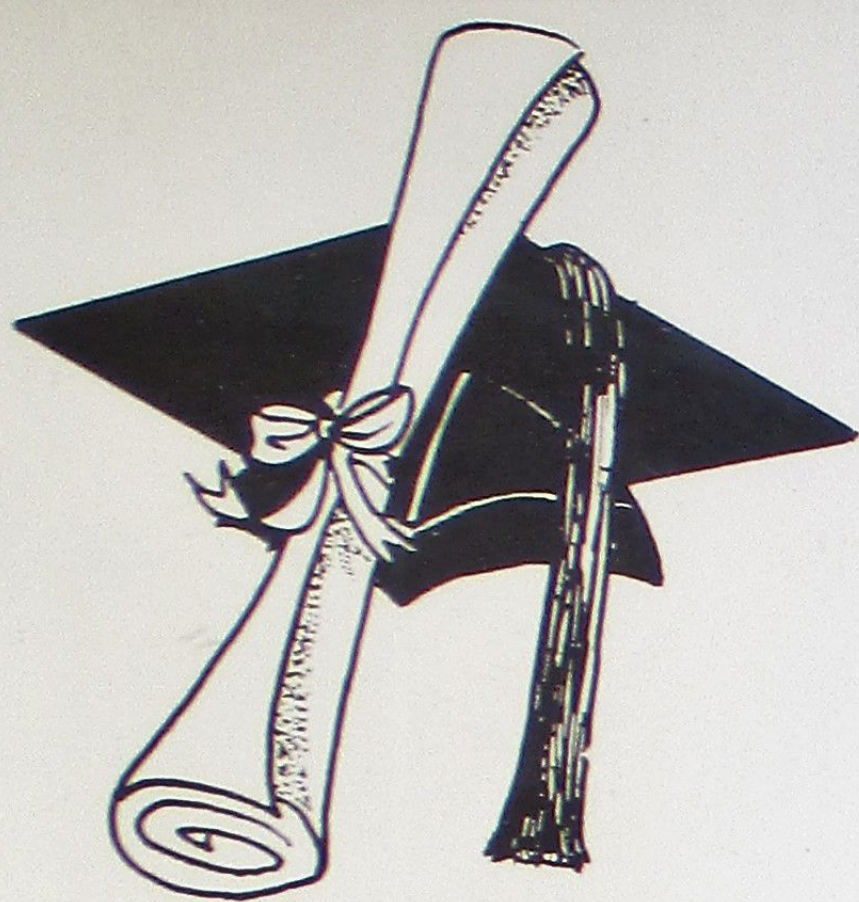

Summer

Try to remember the days of Summer.
Swimming, sailing, burning weather.
Try to remember the days of Summer.
June, July, August, September.
Try to remember the days of Summer.
And when you come back to September.
Think of the years you spent making memories,
And follow.

SCHOOL SONG

Gray is the peaceful night:
Day's closing brings it night —
Crimson which streaks the sky
In radiant light.
Those are our colors dear,
Though we in numbers few
To them we will be true
When far or near.

Each year we work and strive
To keep our ideals high,
High as the distant sky,
Each one alive.
Memories of happy hours,
Millis, thou school of ours,
Hear this our welcome lay,
Crimson and Gray.

Class History

At last, the time has come when the Class of '69 must bid farewell to M.H.S. Before we say good-bye, however, we would like to reminisce for a short while to "Try to Remember" some of what has made the class of '69 what it is today.

It all began in 1956, when we were enrolled in kindergarten. We started off with a bang. On the very first day, Tommy Brodeur lost his lunch—immediately after eating it. We soon became accustomed to school life and began to progress rapidly. All except Wesley Proe that is. He never did learn to tie his own shoes. Our biggest thrill of the year was when we had a real live lamb in the room. The lamb was just as excited as we were—he went to the bathroom all over the floor.

As a first grade class we must admit, we were quite unfriendly. Ralph Geyer began his career as a "public nuisance" when he pushed Jo-Ann Powell out of the bus and knocked her flat on her face and Paula Kopeski spent the whole year fighting Pat Taraski. Their was one friendship, however. In fact, it became serious when Peter Simpson and Cathy Casey began sending out wedding invitations to all the members of the class.

The next year we became professional entertainers. Every day after lunch John Welch, Jack O'Rourke, Tommy Brodeur, and Greg Monaghan presented their version of the ALKA-SELTZER commercial.

The best performance, however, was given by Maryanne Rielly, singing "Tan Shoes and Pink Shoelaces" — or was it Karen Prue singing "Sugar In The Morning?" Our talent was shown in a different field when Sheila Matthews tried out for—and made the little league team. She was forced to resign however when they found out she was a girl. And we can't forget when "ladies' man" Jack O'Rourke had his first love with his teacher, Miss Energren.

With the start of the third grade came the start of a new romance, Carol MacGregor and Eric Young began climbing apple trees and kissing in the chicken coop. Tommy Brodeur became known as a "squealer" that year. He told on everyone who sneaked to the basement. He didn't dare tell, however, when Warren Champagne knocked Norman Bloom out cold in the basement later that year. Mrs. Berman's class tried to make butter to spread on their crackers. They weren't very successful however. They ended up spreading lumpy milk on their crackers.

The next year we moved into the Memorial School. We liked this school much better because it had bigger windows. They were just big enough for one fourth-grade student to jump through. Fortunately, only one student was caught. Naturally, we all felt sorry that it had to be Norman. That same year we girls became champions. First, Micki White beat Greg McGann in the race. Then Linda Bruno beat Charlie Germano in a fist fight.

As a fifth grade class, we weren't very well behaved, Craig Riggs and Arlene Mighton tied Norman to a tree and left him there, that is, until Millis's finest were called upon to rescue him. Peter Simpson got in on the action by tying Bryan Teague's pants to the window shade. He actually thought Bryan would wrap up in the shade. He was quite dissappointed when instead Bryan pulled the shade right off the wall. Later that year Carol MacGregor whistled at a senior girl who had walked into the room. She had to write 500 times "I will not whistle at Senior girls."

In the sixth grade our boys became men. John Welch & Greg Monaghan proved their super-human strength when they trapped Gordon Browne behind Mrs. Blom's door. Gordon broke the glass pane on the door trying to get out, and the whole class had to miss recess for a month. That same year, John and Greg discovered girls from the pipes above the girls' shower room. Not long after that, someone began stealing lunches from the back of the room, so the teacher posted Eddie Ingraham in the back to guard them. This strategy wasn't entirely successful since it was Eddie who had been stealing them. That was also a big year for Steve Warsof. He became very well-known when he flushed a cherry bomb down the toilet and blew the pipes apart.

We entered the seventh grade with the usual confidence of 13-year-olds. We were already to conquer the world. Things didn't look too promising, though, when Mary MacLelland couldn't even find Texas on a map of the United States.

The next year we made a big hit with our teachers. First Michael Ritchie showed his love for science class when he locked the teacher out of the room and blockaded the door with his desk. Then, Ray Mercer let his frog loose right in the middle of the "Pledge of Allegiance". And Mrs. Geller was quite upset when Pat Carruth added a can of bacon fat to a bowl of punch. She thought it was frozen orange juice. We must add, however, that we did do some good that year. Because we still think that if it weren't for us, Miss Blume and Mr. Wilson might never have become Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Our first year in high school was rather disappointing. We had high hopes of making more money than any class had ever made. We ended up with a sum total of $-50.

The next year were were more successful, however. We sponsored a giant food sale and made $75. We now had $25 in the Treasury. That was also the year of our first bomb scare. Now, 2 years and 17 bomb scares later it's quite embarrassing to admit that we were so scared it took us only 63 seconds to clear the building.

In our Junior year, we became known as the "go-go" class. We started off by presenting the first annual Talent Show which proved to be quite a hit. We were even more successful with the Junior Prom. Following the theme of "Gone with the Wind", the gym was expertly transformed into a Southern Plantation. Of course, we never could have done it without the help of Mr. Conley and his beany copter. In thinking back to that all important year, we can't help but remember what a great disappointment it was to see Mr. Conley leave. We all share the opinion that Mr. Conley was the greatest teacher that we've ever had.

This past year has without a doubt been the best one of all. The fun began on Halloween Day when we all wore costumes to school. Mr. Vellante was very understanding and declared it a "senior privilege". We don't mind admitting that we're proud to be leaving this new tradition behind us.

We are also proud to have been the first class at Millis High School to present a musical revue instead of the traditional play. Through the efforts of Miss Maguire and Mr. Vorce, "Mame's America" proved to be quite a success, in spite of the many-er-"disagreements" we had at rehearsals. And we hope that our version of the song "Happiness" will long remain at M.H.S.

Class Prophecy

The time — June 12, 1989. The place — 500 feet underground in front of the America's ultra-secret, 2 mile long spy computer invented and designed by engineers Ricky Graham and Ken Woodard and operated by the world's most famous super-snoop, Linda Bruno. The machine has gathered some very interesting facts today. In Europe, John Carter, self-appointed dictator of the IV Reich, has passed down his first order — from now on, karate will be compulsory in grades 9-12.

Bruce Smith, recently elected president of the financially troubled Ford Motor Company, has decided that to stimulate business he will bring back the Edsel. He will meet stiff competition from Donny Mosher's Rambler Company and Craig Rigg's Foreign Auto Imports. There was trouble at Yale University yesterday. Leader of the radical forces, Wes Proe, said the students were striking for more progressive measures such as a higher percentage of student teachers and co-ed dorms. Steve Warsof, president of the University, said he would stop the strike at all costs. He decided to call in the police. Chief of Police, Ed Ingraham was heard to mutter "I don't know what is wrong with students these days. These kids just don't have any respect for authority." Arrested in the raid were folk singer Patty Carruth and Harv Davis, indicted for showing questionable films for a profit. Also arrested were Deneb Karentz, professor of logic and public speaking and Mike Ritchie. Mike said he didn't know why he was arrested. He saw a bunch of people sitting down so he sat down too. He claims he was asleep during the riots. Luckily, expert photographer Paul Clancy happened to be right on the spot. He got shots of Dennis Sansoucy and his motor-scooter gang breaking up the riots and officer Russ Gilbert allegedly using excess force to break up the motor-scooter gang. Roger Pierce, editor-in-chief of Playboy said the photos will be shown among Paul's usual quota of pictures in next month's magazine. Speaker of the house, Donna Joyce, called for a public censure of the matter.

Nancy Laliberte, Linda Solan, and Laurel Johnson were the big winners in a WRKO contest. Nancy and Lynda won free lessons at the Cathy Casey Glamor Studios and Laurel won 3 free swimming lessons from Debby Mosher.

Dennis Gillespie, top fighter pilot, was shot down yesterday and fell critically ill today from the bite of a cobra snake. Also injured in the crash was David Rosen, who refused to jump out of the plane until it approached close to the ground.

John Carey, manager of Herman Shoe, announced that the factory is hiring 50 new workers solely for the job of erasing writing off the walls. To do the really high up work, gymnast Robert Olson is being brought in.

Jo-Ann Powell became the first woman to win the Indy 500 as she nosed out last year's champion, Peter Simpson. Michelle Turci, Sue Hodder and Mary MacLelland disagreed with the decision, grabbed a microphone and all three vocally abused the track officials.

Time Magazine has announced that they are giving their award of Man of the Year to David Hawkins, Secretary of the Navy.

Last night at Miami Beach, Karen Prue was crowned Miss Congeniality of 1989.

Gordon Browne has finally bought out all of the Framingham News. It is reported that the paper may now drop Arlene Mighton's daily gossip column. Debbie Shropshire, Vice-President in charge of sales for Corvair has decided to fire-proof the car and has chosen Dale Pearson and Elaine Hurley, formerly the World's foremost fashion designers, to design it. She said that driver ed teacher Dianne Wallace will be the first to test drive the new car even though Charlie O'Donnell, president of All-State Insurance Co. said that they won't insure it if Dianne drives.

Jean Clancy, owner of Hickory Farms, has brought anti-trust action against Carol MacGregor, Janet MacFarland and Terry Dennett, new co-owners of the Hot Shoppes, for trying to run her out of business. Paul Bartony, keeper of the turtles at the city zoo, has filed a complaint against a fellow worker. He says that his turtles keep on getting eaten by Greg McGann's uncontrolled wolves.

Arthur Jones, Chairman of the American Tobacco Company, was fired yesterday for eating lunch at Julie Robinson's New Christy's instead of the factory cafeteria.

Many world records fell today. Darlene York's record of 19 years of engagement was broken by Brenda Wakefield's 20th. Lucinda Perry finally made her own diamond collection the largest in the world and poor Roger Worrey failed to pass his driver's test, for the 17th time, breaking his old world record of 16.

John Welch officially announced his retirement for the Green Bay Packers today to go into the world of business. He and his former teammate, Paul Lemieux, plan to open up a chain of Mr. John's Beauty Salons.

At the Emmy Awards last night, the winner of the Emmy for the best actress was Pat Taraski for her part as werewolf on Dark Shadows. Best supporting actress went to Jean Dwyer for her part as a speech therapist in "The Doctors." Greg Monaghan received the award for the best commercial of the year for his part as the Little Old Winemaker and Peter Nicholson received an Emmy for the best male actor for his part as a plastic surgeon. Rumors have it that Norman Bloom could have won the best actor award as the new emcee of the "Ed Sullivan Show" but he just couldn't take off enough time from his star role on the "Outer Limits".

A group consisting of guidance counselor, Kathy Wallace, teacher Gayle Krohn, office secretary, Susan Bennett, and Millis's first combination track coach and typing teacher in 20 years Eric Young, have finally abolished the dress code almost. Everything will be allowed except shorts, slacks on girls, extreme haircuts, unshaven faces and long sideburns. The difference from the old code - T shirts in good taste will be allowed.

Linda Smith, owner of the Merry Meadows Home for Senior Citizens fired her old butcher today and will hire Susan Leontie as the new one.

A final showdown will occur tonight between former gold medalist in the decathlon, Bryan Warren, and Mickey McKenney, President of the Girl Watchers Society. It seems that Bryan wants to become the new President but Mick just won't relinquish the job.

At Main's Drug Store early this morning Ellen Gavin won owner Polly Lannon's contest to see who would be the store's 1 millionth customer. Ellen was allowed to shop for free goods for five minutes.

A minor scuffle was reported today at Walpole State Prison. Warden Frank Hamm sent several inmates into solitary confinement. Among them are Jack O'Rourke, President of South Shore Bank, convicted of embezzlement, Roxy Mico, about to be released after 20 years for staging wild party on the night of June 12, 1969, and town crier Ralph Geyer, convicted of performing illegal brain operations.

Paula Kopeski bought out Dolly Morey's Hairdressing Company and will use the new buildings to start a chain of Polish Fish Markets.

Phil Harcovitz was taken off the critical list today after having his stomach pumped for eating a record number of 47 princess puddings. He was cared for by nurses Kathy Freese, Maryanne Rielly and Susan Forrest. The three also had to care for Chuck Ellis, who hit a tree after setting the world speed record of 75 miles per hour around the turn by the graveyard, and Tom Brodeur, who turned blue in the face from lack of air after swallowing a fly.

Seven new Swedish films, produced and directed by Ronny Lewis have been seized by customs officials who said that under no conditions would they return them.

The last message we got out of the giant computer before Kathy Clancy, while programming it, dropped a pen into it and shorted half its circuits was that Sandy Tackett, President of the Weight Watchers Society, criticized the food industry today because of the high cholesterol content of Spaghetti, but the chief chef of Prince Spaghetti, Netta Sorrento, resoundly reaffirmed that the formula will stay the same.

Class Will

We the Class of One thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine being of reasonably sound mind and body, do hereby write and hand down our last Will and Testament to posterity thereby voiding all other wills previously issued.

to MR. VELLANTE we leave a Halloween tradition never to be forgotten.

to MR. DOYLE we leave the title "Mr. Good-Guy" because of all the wonderful things he has done for us.

to MISS MAGUIRE we leave one hundred copies of the Senior recording of "Happiness" for her to treasure forever.

to MR. TUOHEY we leave a life-time supply of mustache wax.

to MR. MCCOY we leave a dozen donuts to hide in his desk.

to MISS STRATHERN we leave fifty-five overdue books.

Mr. Tuohey's fourth period History class leaves him twenty-two unfinished term papers.

The second period Senior Office Practice Class leaves a year's supply of gum to Mr. Glass.

to DR. ROY we leave a peep hole in his window so those on the outside can look in.

to MRS. ROGERS we leave this message to be used next year: "Would you please proceed to your next period class. The bells are not functioning at this time."

to MRS. WELCH we leave a hearing aid so that she can hear Mr. Vellante during the assemblies.

to MR. FLANAGAN we leave an empty house on Friday and Saturday nights.

to MR. VORCE we leave a wink and wiggle from all his admirers.

to MR. GILFOY we leave one used girl's gym suit hanging on the back wall.

to MR. WESTHOFF we leave a pair of dancing shoes for next year's school dances.

to MR. CANGI we leave one white rabbit to keep him company.

In conclusion, we pray that no one herein mentioned will take offense, but will accept these gifts in the manner in which they were given.

In testimony whereof, we the Class of 1969, given under our hand and seal, on this twelfth day of June in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand, nine hundred and sixty-nine, do declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

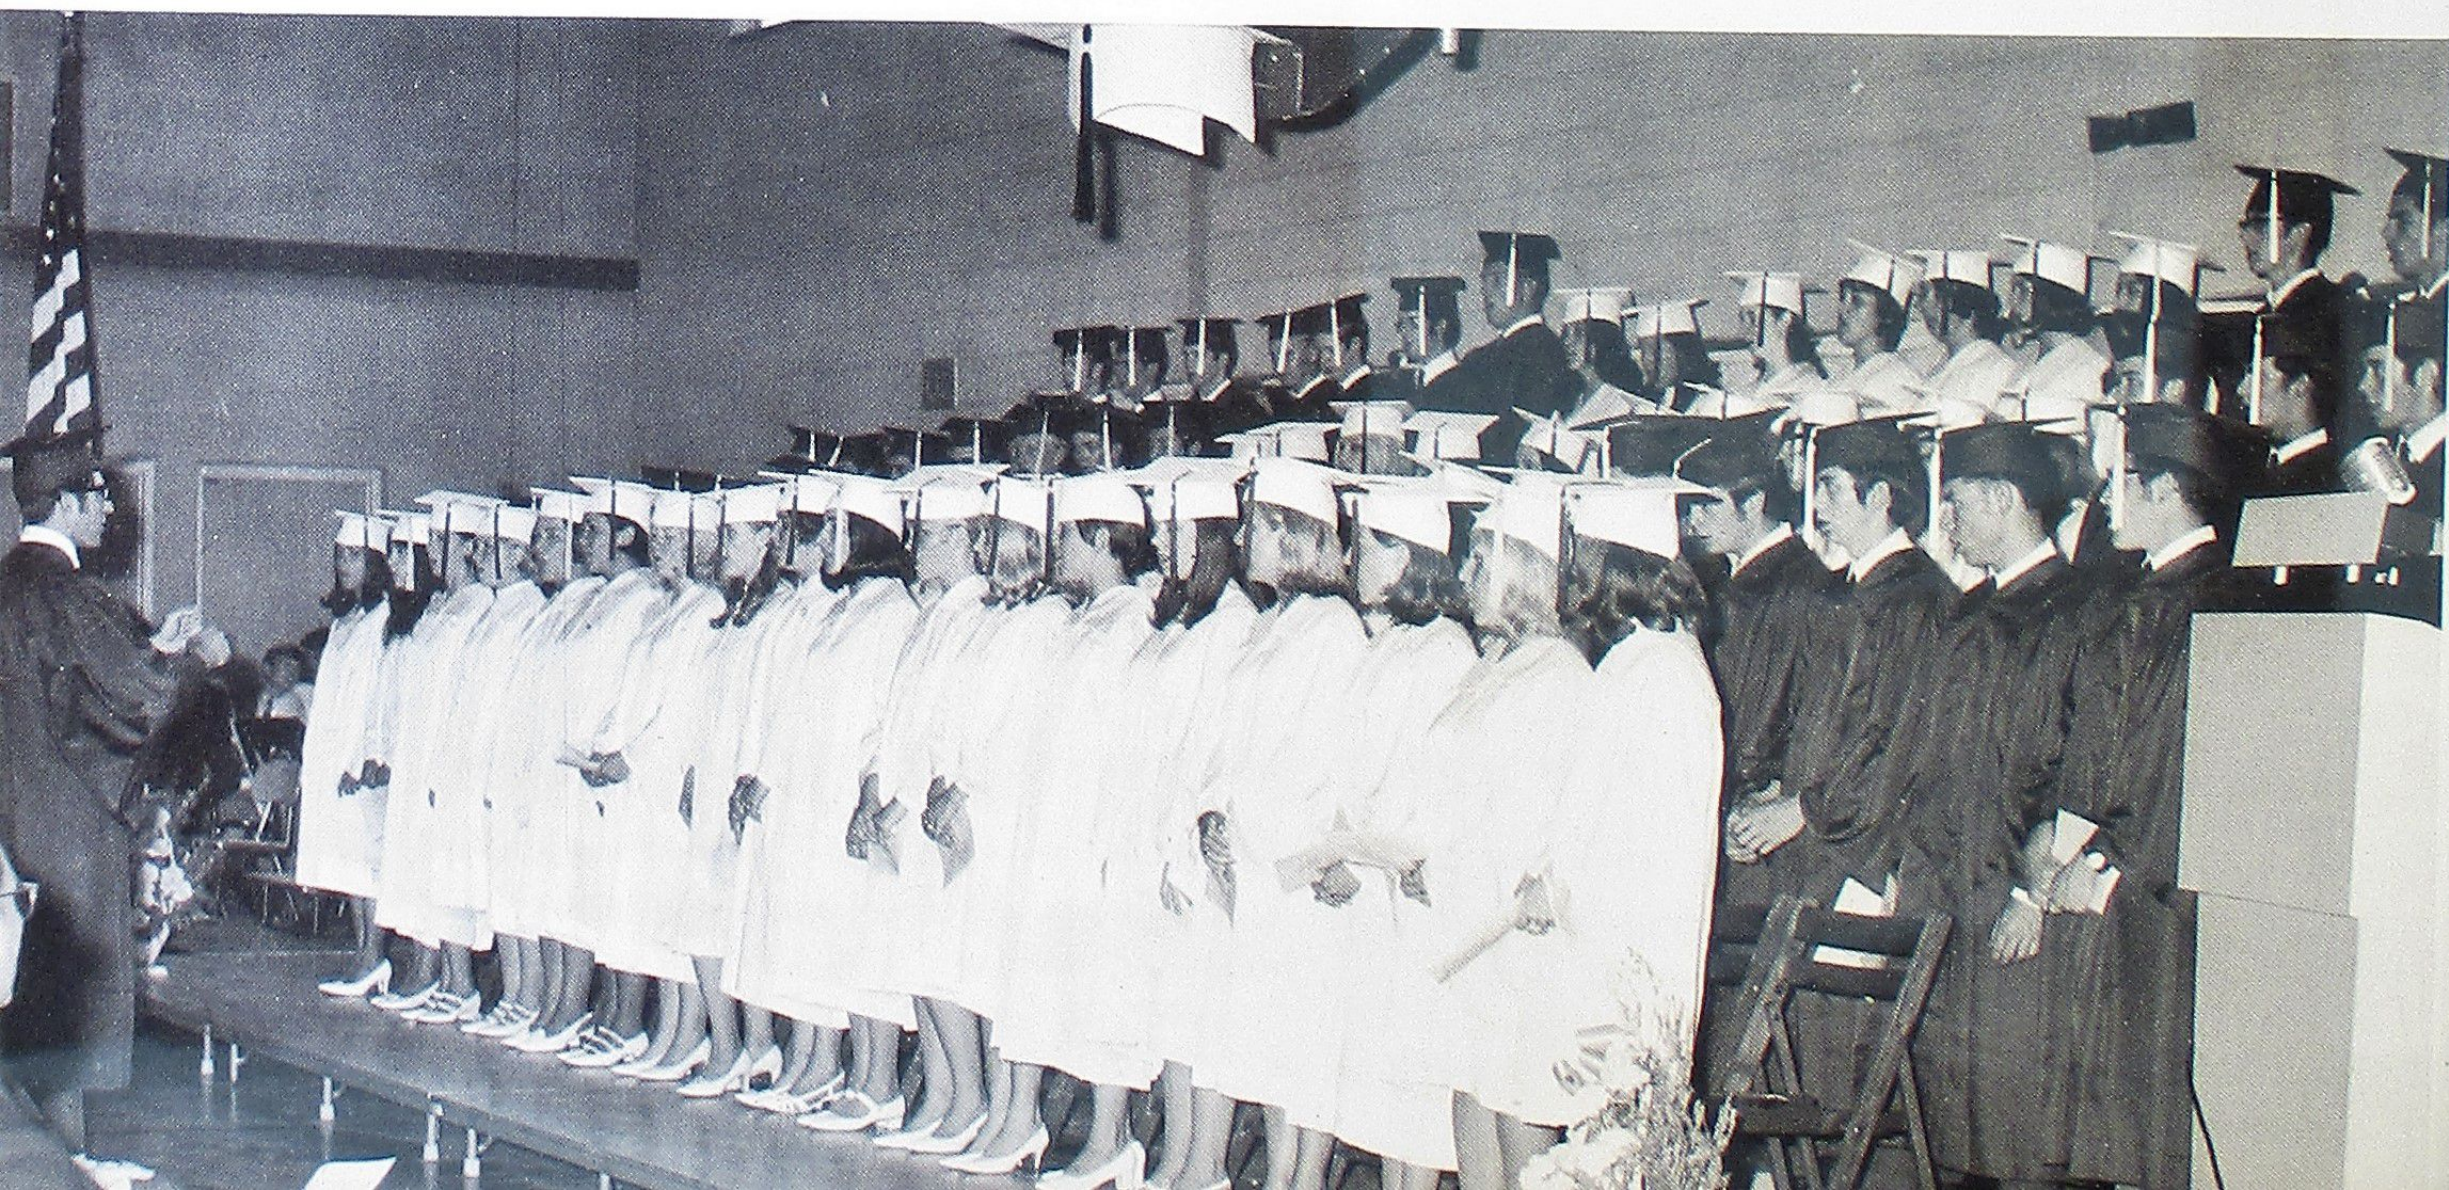

School Song

Gray is the peaceful night:

Each year we work and strive
 To keep our ideals high,
 High as the distant sky,
 Each one alive.
 Memories of happy hours,
 Millis, thou school of ours,
 Hear this our welcome lay,
 Crimson and Gray.

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.
